

PHIL SVITEK

360 CREATIVE COACH

UNIQUE PERSPECTIVE

- Practitioner, not just theorist
- Bridges art + business + mindset (rare combo)
- Transparent about process, including failures and pivots
- Long-term thinker: building a career, not chasing virality

IGNITING ARTISTS TO TURN AMBITION INTO ACTION

ABOUT

Phil Svitek is a filmmaker, author, podcaster, and 360 Creative Coach who has worked professionally in the industry since age 15. He has directed two feature films, authored both fiction and nonfiction books, and is currently in pre-production on the 2D animated feature The Arbiters.

He has produced over 100,000 podcast and YouTube episodes and collaborated with brands and talent including The Grammys, AfterBuzz TV, Goop, Wheelhouse, GirlBoss, Maria Shriver, and David Spade.

His coaching blends practical insight with mental resilience, drawing from hands-on work with artists across disciplines to help them achieve their creative ambitions.

TOPICS & AUDIENCE TAKEAWAYS

Filmmaking & Creativity

How to go from idea to execution on a small budget, with real indie filmmaking lessons

Mindset & Mental Fortitude

Practical ways to stay consistent, reframe productivity, and navigate rejection, uncertainty, and long creative timelines

Business of Being an Artist

Clear strategies for funding creative projects, choosing between crowdfunding, Patreon, and investors, and building momentum before you're "established"

Content Creation & Audience Building

What actually works after 100,000+ episodes—how to turn content into real opportunities, grow sustainably, and avoid burnout

Storytelling Philosophy

How consuming great work sharpens your craft, blending influences to stand out, and creating stories that genuinely resonate with audiences

MEMORIES

FEATURED WORKS

